

WALLPAPER* HANDMADE X: With Love

Wallpaper* Handmade is in its tenth year and emotions are running high. So overwhelmingly warm and fuzzy-feeling are we that this anniversary edition is a celebration of love in its infinite variety. Heart-swelling tools, tokens and totems of affection have been co-created by marrying the brightest and best designers, artists and architects with the finest craftsmen, makers and manufacturers. Let the power of love and mutual admiration light your fire, and prepare to be smitten and seduced by our one-off wonders:

- Elmgreen & Dragset and Georg Jensen's cellphone slumber pod
- Chan + Eayrs, Sebastian Cox and American Hardwood Export Council's blushing bar
- Hayon Studio and Caran d'Ache's pastel people
- Germans Ermičs and Bang & Olufsen's harmony machine
- Gustavo Martini and Testi's love seat
- Paul Smith and Mercian's bicycle ride for two

The exhibition at Milan's Salone dei Tessuti will also feature desirable denim from Isko, uplifting upholstery from Sancal, Lara Bohinc's celestial rugs for Kasthall, modular magnificence from USM, shapely furnishings from Lato x Lato, MUJI clutter-minimisers and, to mark his 90th birthday last year, music by legendary Italian composer Ennio Morricone – listen to the playlist at wpr.co/wallpaperhandmadex.

Sarah Douglas, Wallpaper* editor-in-chief, says, 'Ten years, 587 projects, 1,085 collaborators... Wallpaper* Handmade has curated and paired some of the finest creative talents and rising stars with the most outstanding makers and manufacturers. For this year's love-themed exhibition we've produced our most imaginative collection of unique creations yet.'

The full story of each Handmade project, from first contact to finishing touches, will be told in the August issue of Wallpaper*, out 11 July.
